MADE WITH LOVE AND BEAUTY IN AFRICA

Welcome to Fabelicious Dried Roses.
The trend in dried flowers is back again!
The authentic feeling is completed with dried roses.

In our magazine you will find a great mix of our collection of roses from Africa, grown under the best conditions for both rose and local growers. The pure product is our basis, because the beauty of roses says enough. The rose is the number 1 flower in the world for a reason.

With a powerful production in Africa and our drying and logistics facilities in The Netherlands. Whether it's love, a gift or to style your interior, everything is possible with Fabelicious dried roses.

FABELICIOUS COLLECTION

Fabelicious dried Africa roses collection consists of an assortment of various single and bunches of fresh dried roses. The color range is versatile, from white, red, pink, orange to mix variants.

Our roses from Africa are grown under the best conditions and dried in the Netherlands for the best results.

We deliver the roses in bundled packaging or in bulk if desired.

We offer the basic lengths for 40 cm in single or spray varieties, but of course there are various other sizes available, adapted to your personal wishes.

In addition, we offer the possibility of creating added value by incorporating the roses in the latest trends in gift items.

We can also process your labels and logos in the final product.

In addition, we can advise you about various gift packaging.
